Support.

Take advantage of our expert support.

Short support

In addition to the 90 days Apple telephone support, DQ Solutions clients also enjoy the 90 days short support in all our DQ Solutions stores. Our colleagues in support and sales will be happy to help you, free of charge. After a 90-day time period from date of purchase, we charge CHF 3.30 per minute for short support. Clients who did not buy their device at DQ Solutions are also welcome to take advantage of this rate.

Short support at the technology desk or at our shops is available for the following topics:

- iOS support for everything concerning your iPhone, iPad, iTunes and iCloud
- macOS system support

Hotline 0900 57 62 92*

Our hotline staff provides you with competent information on all questions regarding Apple computer, iOS devices and networks. If practicable, we are also happy to solve your problems via remote maintenance, easily and quickly.

Damage caused by liquid?

Cleaning service unique to Switzerland.

We are successfully using this new cleaning service for laptops and smartphones with damage of any kind caused by liquid.

Corrosion – and therefore damage to a computer – occurs, when fluids and oxygen/electric current come into contact with each other. Using Tech-save cleaning service, we can stop corrosion and restore the majority of devices to 100% functionality, without also having to repair them.

Cleaning at a fixed rate

No matter how expensive your notebook or smartphone was, and how large or small it is – we clean any of them at a fixed rate.

Saving your notebook

In the majority of cases, we can restore and/or save your device and your data.

No risk

You only pay for the cleaning if it was successful.

Low cost

Damage caused by liquid can be remedied much more cost effectively than if repaired the conventional way.

Warranty

We take on the manufacturer's warranty of your device, and it is covered up to the regular expiry date.
